GETTING TO RWANDA

The main airport of Rwanda is Kigali International Airport. It is located 10 km east of the city center. Several daily flights connect Kigali with other capitals of the sub-region and intercontinental flights allow passenger traffic between Europe, Asia and other continents, directly or with a connection. RwandAir is the country's national flag carrier.

Details on RwandAir routes can be found on <https://www.rwandair.com/> under the "Destinations & Offers" tab.

VISA

It is the responsibility of the traveler to confirm current details relating to specific circumstances using the following link: <https://migration.gov.rw/>

Travelers from all countries can obtain a visa upon arrival for 30 days, without prior request for $50 for single entry and can be paid in cash (Sterling, US dollars or Rwandan francs) or by Visa/MasterCard.

A visa can also be bought online ahead of travel (this must be completed at least 72 hours in advance of arrival). The applicant will receive a response from the immigration authorities within 3 days. This response must be printed and handed over to the border control of immigration on arrival.

Please note that the passport must be valid for 6 months after the return date.

Special Conditions

In the context of reciprocity, a 90 days visa is provided free to nationals of the following countries:

Angola, Benin, Central African Republic, Chad, Ghana, Guinea, Indonesia, Haiti, Senegal, Seychelles, Sao Tome and Principe, Democratic Republic of Congo, members of the Community of East African States, Mauritius, the Philippines, Hong Kong and Singapore. For diplomatic and service passports, an exemption is applied for the following countries: Djibouti, Ethiopia, Gabon, Guinea, India, Israel, Morocco and Turkey.

For countries affected by Yellow Fever; we recommend attendees to bring their certificate of inoculation, otherwise a further vaccination might be injected upon arrival, possibly at additional cost.
